ALL ROME'S HOWLING

Nothing But the Prompt Recall of the Troops from Africa Will Suffice.

MUSIC FOR POLITICIANS

The President Will Send an Officer to Cuba Before Recognizing the Island.

THE WOMEN IN POLITICS

ROME, Italy, March 6.—The women and other societies are organizing here for popular demonstrations, to-night, to demand the prompt recall of the troops from Africa. Rioting is thought to be highly probable. Details of riots elsewhere are coming in. Fierce fighting occurred at Milan nearly all last night and was only suppressed at the point of the bayonet. Public sentiment strongly favors peace. The military authorities urge a continuation of the bloody war.

Warned in Time. LONDON, England, March 6.—The authorities of Curacao, Danish West Indies, have been advised that the British squadron will arrive in those parts soon. This port is located only seventy-five miles distant from the Venezuelan coast.

Life Had No Chances. DENVER, Colorado, March 6.—Jose Smith, a rather wayward character, committed suicide this morning at her residence in a fit of acute melancholia. She had been the mistress of one Bascom Smith for several years past and it is believed that just previous to her rash action, she received a severe letter from Smith, upbraiding her for some supposed neglect.

All Day With Him. BELLEVILLE, Pa., March 6.—William Ellinger, a local desperado, who was entangled in a house to avoid arrest, was fatally wounded, to-day, by a constable, who attempted to capture the fellow. He had a number of ferocious dogs and a quantity of dynamite in his possession. The place was surrounded by 300 people and lynching was certain, if he had been captured alive.

Base Ball Magnates. ROCKFORD, Ill., March 6.—The magnates of the western base ball association met here, to-day, in response to the call of President F. J. Hickey to complete the arrangement of the schedule for the coming season. The cities represented are St. Louis, Quincy, St. Joseph, Rockford, Jacksonville, Peoria, La Crosse and Denver. Considerable difficulty confronts the scheduled committee in its work and it is doubtful if the meeting will be able to adjourn before Monday.

Injunction Case. NEW YORK, N. Y., March 6.—This is the date set for the hearing of the application of the United States district attorney for an injunction to restrain the railroads composing the joint traffic association from operating under their recent agreement. The proceedings are before Judge Wheeler in the United States circuit court. Each of the many lines represented in the case is represented by eminent counsel, while the prosecution is in behalf of the government is being conducted by United States District Attorney McFarlane.

Cannot Be Separated. CARACAS, March 6.—Ninety days have been allowed Venezuela in which to satisfy the British demand, which expired without a response from this country. Venezuela is declaring the question that the arrest of the British officials cannot be separated from the boundary question.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 6.—It is understood that the cruiser "Newark" has been ordered north from Rio Janeiro. It is believed that the vessel will stop on the Venezuelan coast and offer obstacles to any threatened attack by the British squadron, which is known to be near there.

The Women on Hand. CHICAGO, Ill., March 6.—A host of representative republican women from all over Illinois, assembled in the parlors of the Great Northern, this morning, to discuss a plan of campaign for the women to pursue, this fall. The women compose the Illinois woman's republican committee. At the first meeting of the committee since the campaign two years ago, when the women succeeded in electing one of their number as a member of the board of trustees of the state university, the enthusiasm of the fair politicians at the opening of their conference, to-day, was intense.

The Administration's Policy. WASHINGTON, D. C., March 6.—It is currently rumored that President Cleveland and his cabinet have decided to send a special representative to Cuba, in order to ascertain the actual condition of affairs there, relative to the insurrection. General Merritt is now at Washington and has been closeted with the president and cabinet several times during the past two days. Every indication causes the belief that General Merritt will be asked to fulfill this important duty. It is upon his report that the president will base his final decision relative to the recognition of the insurgents as belligerents. New York, N. Y., March 6.—The Cuban authorities at Havana, report the safe landing of three more cargoes of arms, cartridges and other stores, on the island.

CHEAP MUSIC.

An Orchestra Free of Charge for the Republican Convention.

St. Louis, Mo., March 6.—It is not improbable that, as a result of the war between the theatrical stage employees' union and the national league of musicians, the committee on arrangements for the republican national convention may arrive at the decision "A plague on both your houses," and conclude that the gathering can get through with its oratory, its platform and its president and vice-president making, without the accompaniment of "Hall, Columbia." "Rally round the flag, boys," "The star spangled banner," and the patriotic medleys with which previous gatherings of the kind have been enlivened.

The trouble between the two organizations is national in character, and the local branch of the theatrical stage union has decided to make a proposition to furnish the convention with an orchestra of 100 pieces, free of charge, with the proviso that no negotiations shall be entered into with the national league of musicians. The latter organization, it is understood, will make a similar proposition, and the fight for supremacy will be waged even if the lives of the members of the responsible committee are made a burden. The same tactics are to be pursued with the democratic convention in Chicago.

The Young Republicans. CHICAGO, Ill., February 6.—President Vaughan, of the national republican college league, announces that reports received from colleges and universities in all sections of the country, indicate that the annual convention of the league in Chicago, next month, will be the largest and most representative gathering of young republicans ever held. There are about 150 colleges and universities entitled to send delegates to the convention, and already a large majority of them have responded that they will be fully represented. This will be the fifth convention of the league.

The Cold Water Brigade. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., March 6.—The sub-committee on arrangements for the Minnesota state prohibition convention, which will assemble here next Friday, to select delegates to the national convention to be held at Pittsburgh, met to-day and completed its arrangements for the gathering. Judging from reports received from all parts of the state, the temperance movement has lost no ground in Minnesota the last year or two and it is expected the convention next week will be the largest ever held by the prohibitionists in the northwest.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

The total losses from floods in New England will amount to over $2,000,000.

Senator Thurston made public an appendix to Nebraska representatives in favor of sending a McKinley delegation to the St. Louis convention. It was voted that the candidacy of ex-Senator Charles Manderson, of Nebraska, is designed to defeat McKinley.

The Iowa senate suppression of intemperance committee has decided to vote in favor of a bill allowing the manufacture of liquor in the state if 65 per cent. of the voters in city or county petition for it. No quantities less than four gallons are to be sold.

Other actors but James O'Neill have attempted to play "Monte Cristo" in this country without any exceptions, every attempt has been a failure. Mr. O'Neill was the first American actor to make Dumas' fascinating hero, Edmund Dantes, popular with the public ten years ago, and true to his trust, the public have never forgotten James O'Neill. On the contrary, every season the theater-goers express their continued approval of O'Neill's great performance by crowding the theater to the doors when O'Neill is "Monte Cristo" in the bill. This great attraction will be at the Tamme opera house, Tuesday evening, March 10th.
